

Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania

1300 Locust Street, Second Floor

Philadelphia, PA 19107--5699

Phone: 215-545-0391

Web Site: www.genpa.org

Pennsylvania Partnership Summit: The Virtual Society in Action

- Who? The Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania Partners Program, sponsor, supported by a grant from the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission
- What? An all-day program focused on ways genealogical societies can add to their Internet presence to increase society outreach.
- Morning: Societies Going Virtual and Societies Going Virtual—An Update
- David E. Rencher, chief genealogical officer of Family Search.org, featured speaker
- Afternoon: Getting Started with Virtual Meetings and Service Delivery: Options and Best Practices
- Tim Siftar, librarian in the Information Science and Technology Department at Drexel University's Goodwin College
Seth Horwitz, CommuniShare Consulting
- Why? In today's electronic world, genealogical societies of all sizes are turning to the virtual world to interact with and provide services to members.
- Where? Embassy Suites Hotel Philadelphia-Valley Forge
Conveniently situated just off Route 202 between King of Prussia and Exton and just a few miles from the Schuylkill Expressway (Interstate 76), Blue Route (Interstate 476), and the Pennsylvania Turnpike.
888 Chesterbrook Blvd., Wayne, PA 19087
More information at www.vfsuites.com
- When? 11 December 2009 (Friday)
Registration begins at 9 AM
Last session ends at 3:30 PM
- How? Register online at www.genpa.org
Call the GSP office, 215-545-0391
- Cost? $40 per attendee includes lunch and wireless internet in classroom.
Two representatives from each Partners member society may attend without charge.
- Details? Consult the GSP web site, www.genpa.org